FIRST ANNUAL Scotland County Highland Games

October 2-4, 2009

AT THE
John Blue House and Historical Complex
Laurinburg, NC

www.schgnc.org

Come to Scotland County, North Carolina for a weekend of Scotland in the USA!

The Upper Cape Fear and Pee Dee regions of the Carolinas were home to the largest settlement of Highland Scots in all of North America. The Scotland County Highland Games, Inc. strives to provide a celebration of this rich heritage within this region through providing the only Highland Games and Gathering in this region of historical importance.

❖ The Scotland County Highland Games will be held on the grounds of the John Blue Home and Historical Complex in Laurinburg (www.johnbluecomplex.com). This site contains the John Blue Home and several other historic Scottish-

American homesteads as well as a working ante-bellum cotton gin, a general store, and a miniature passenger train available for rides. ❖ The games site provides an immersion into the Scottish-American historical experience of this region. Local hotels and restaurants will offer Scottish-inspired Southern hospitality to welcome you to Laurinburg and Scotland County,

North Carolina. ❖ The success and growth of the Scotland County Highland Games depends on support from YOU! Please help us establish and grow a Scottish gathering in this area of authentic Scottish-American historical importance.

Honorary Co-Chairman

Donald F. MacDonald, Co-founder of the Grandfather Mountain Highland Games and native of the Carolinas Scottish Settlement.
